Dear Jack:

On June 29, 1984 the San Juan Office of the FBI was tasked with the responsibility of effecting the arrest of [redacted] the former Chief of Police of Mexico City, Mexico. The apprehension was executed in a highly professional manner resulting in the enhancement of a very positive image of the FBI not only in Puerto Rico but internationally.

As you are well aware an operation of this magnitude and importance involves the utmost cooperation and patience. You performed your assigned duties in keeping with the highest traditions of the FBI.

I commend you and I thank you for your efforts in this case.

Sincerely,

RICHARD W. HELD
Special Agent in Charge
